

World History Panorama

Teacher's Copy

Chant	Motions
Renaissance —New Ideas "Bingo!"	Put finger to side of head, look surprised, then pop finger up and say, "Bingo!"
Leonardo da Vinci—art	Carefully "brush" in open palm as if painting.
William Shakespeare— words, writing, plays	Move fingers in circular motion in front of mouth as if words were spouting out. Write in open palm. Move as if a fanciful actor.
Galileo—science	Look through a "telescope" made with two hands raised to eye.
Bach—music	Sing the word "music" while right hand directs music above open left palm.
England and Russia
Queen Elizabeth I "Good Queen Bess"	Ripple fingers up from neck to represent the highly flounced collars she loved and fondly say, "Good Queen Bess."
Peter the Great "Russia changes"	Move hand across the bottom of "smoothly shaven" chin, then shake index finger while saying in warning voice, "Russia changes."
Reformation
Martin Luther—Ninety-five Theses	Make hammering motion with hand.

Continued on next page

Chant	Motions
Dutch Mennonites
Persecution and Victory	With finger, cut across neck. Say this triumphantly with both arms stretched upward in victory sign.
Menno Simons— Most influential Mennonite leader Important speaker and writer Night Preacher	Divide students into two groups. All say this seriously. First group says this. Second group responds with this. Conclude with everyone whispering this secretly.
Dirk Willems—nonresistance on ice	Stretch out both arms to help as seen in the picture.
Elizabeth Dirks— Bible teacher Courage in pain	Hold palms open as a book. Stretch arms upward, then clasp arms across chest as in pain.
Russian Mennonites
Prussia to Russia	March as if traveling.
Promises to Catherine the Great	Vigorously nod head.
Turkey Red wheat	Sway as wheat blowing in the wind.
Wealth	Pose imitating finery and pride; rub fingers in motion for money.
Bolshevik Revolution—1917 Fighting Starvation Disease Nonresistance tested	Divide students into four groups; each says one of the following four words/phrases. Say “Bang, bang, bang.” Rub empty stomach. Slouch down and look miserable. Stretch arms upward, then bring down fists side by side in front of body.
Migrations to Kansas and Canada	Start out marching while saying this phrase, then switch to motions representing boats sailing.

Continued on next page

Chant	Motions
Revival John Bunyan Jonathan Edwards John and Charles Wesley George Whitefield John Newton Fanny Crosby D. L. Moody Brunk Brothers	Divide students into two groups saying alternate names.
Missions David Zeisberger—United States William Carey—India Adoniram Judson—Burma George Müller—England David Livingstone—Africa Hudson Taylor—China Amy Carmichael—India	Divide into two groups; one says name and other gives location.
World Wars I and II and the Holocaust
World War I—1914–1918
Conscientious objector—one who refuses to take part in war because he believes it is wrong to fight and kill “Killing is wrong! I will not fight.”	Hold palms out while saying this line.
World War II—1939–1945
Adolf Hitler— “Germans are the best!” “We should rule the world!”	Salute—raise right arm at an angle of about 45° and slightly sideways to the right. Give thumbs-up sign. Encircle a “world” with arms, starting small, then getting very large.

Continued on next page

Chant	Motions
Germany, Italy, and Japan against the rest	Hold up fingers 1–2–3 with palm turned toward body while naming the three countries; stretch other arm straight out with palm outward to indicate “the rest.”
Nazi Party— German political party led by (guess who?)— Adolf Hitler	March stiffly. Stand at attention. Put palms out in questioning motion. Give same salute as above for Adolf Hitler.
Holocaust— six million Jews— dead	Holocaust means “a sacrifice consumed by fire” so make fluttering finger motions indicating a fire. Hold up six fingers. Drop head forward onto chest.
Concentration camps— Hard work, starvation, death	Cross two forefingers to form an x representing the barbed wire around the camps. Pound one fist on the other. Suck in cheeks and stomach. Drop head forward onto chest.
Corrie ten Boom— Hid Jews Suffered— and triumphed— in concentration camps Overcame evil with good! “I forgive.”	Make a simple hiding motion. Cross arms over chest. Fling arms upward in triumph. Place palm on chest as if hiding the Bible under her dress, then shake vitamin drops out of an imaginary bottle Hold out hand to shake.